IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF ARIZONA

Plaintiff,

v.

Defendants.

No. CV

ORDER SETTING TRIAL AND FINAL PRETRIAL CONFERENCE

IT IS ORDERED that the trial is set to begin on [date] at 9:00 a.m. and conclude on [date] in Courtroom 601, Sandra Day O'Connor U.S. Federal Courthouse, 401 W. Washington St., Phoenix, Arizona 85003.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that pursuant to Rule 16(d) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, a Final Pretrial Conference shall be held on [2 weeks before trial]. In preparation for the Final Pretrial Conference, it is hereby ordered:

1. Attendance Required. The attorneys (or pro se parties) who will be responsible for the trial of the case must attend the Final Pretrial Conference. The attendees must bring their calendars so trial scheduling can be discussed.

2. Proposed Final Pretrial Order.

Timing: The parties must jointly prepare a Proposed Final Pretrial Order and file it with the Court at least three business days before the Final Pretrial Conference. The parties must exchange drafts of the Proposed Final Pretrial Order no later than 14 days before the submission deadline. The Plaintiff(s) has the burden of initiating such communications. The parties also must submit a copy of the Proposed Final Pretrial Order to the Court in

1 Word format to lanza_chambers@azd.uscourts.gov.

2 Effect: Preparation and lodging of the Proposed Final Pretrial Order in accordance
3 with the requirements of this Order will be deemed to satisfy the disclosure requirements
4 of Rule 26(a)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

5 Content: The Proposed Final Pretrial Order must include the information prescribed
6 in the “Joint Proposed Final Pretrial Order” form that is available at www.azd.uscourts.gov
7 under: Judges’ Information → Orders, Forms and Procedures → Dominic W. Lanza. The 8 information may not be set forth in the form of a question and must be presented in concise 9 narrative statements.

10 3. Marking of Exhibits. The parties must meet in person to exchange marked
11 copies of all exhibits to be used at trial no later than 14 days before the submission deadline
12 for the Proposed Final Pretrial Order. During this meeting, the parties also must eliminate
13 any duplicate exhibits.¹ Further information about the Court’s exhibit marking procedures
14 can be found in the document entitled “Exhibit Procedures,” which is available at 15 www.azd.uscourts.gov under: Judges’ Information → Orders, Forms and Procedures →
16 Dominic W. Lanza.

17 4. Preclusion of Undisclosed Matters. The parties are advised that the Court
18 will not allow the parties to offer any exhibit, witness, or other evidence that was not
19 disclosed in accordance with this Order and the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and listed
20 in the Proposed Final Pretrial Order, except to prevent manifest injustice.

21 5. Motions in Limine. The parties must file all motions in limine no later than 22 [4 weeks before FPTC]. Each party may file no more than five motions in limine.

23
24 ¹ During the in-person meeting, the exhibits must be in the exact physical form that 25 will be used at trial. In other words, if a party intends to offer a paper exhibit at trial, that 26 party must have a marked paper copy at the in-person meeting, not an electronic copy.
27 Also, the parties should mark their exhibits exactly as they intend to offer them at trial.
28 During trial, exhibits will be admitted or rejected in their entirety. Thus, if any part of an exhibit is objectionable, it will be excluded in its entirety. The parties will not be permitted to break offered exhibits into admissible sub-parts if an objection is sustained.

1 Responses must be filed no later than [2 weeks before FPTC]. No replies are permitted.
2 Each motion in limine must include proposed language for the order being sought from the 3 Court, and the proposed language must state with precision the evidence that is subject to 4 the proposed order and the limitation or exclusion placed on the evidence. The motions
5 and responses must be concise and must not exceed three (3) pages in length. Counsel
6 shall be prepared to argue the merits of such motions at the Final Pretrial Conference.

7 The Court wishes to emphasize that, in its experience, motions in limine are often
8 utilized improperly. The point of a motion in limine is “to exclude anticipated prejudicial
9 evidence before the evidence is actually offered.” Luce v. United States, 469 U.S. 38, 40
10 n.2 (1984). Thus, it might be permissible for a party to seek a pretrial ruling as to the 11 admissibility of a particular piece of evidence out of concern that the evidence is not only 12 inadmissible but also inherently prejudicial, such that the bell could not be unrung even if 13 an evidentiary objection were made and sustained a trial. In contrast, motions in limine 14 “should rarely seek to exclude broad categories of evidence, as the court is almost always 15 better situated to rule on evidentiary issues in their factual context during trial.” Lankford
16 v. Taylor, 2020 WL 6395294, *3 (D. Ariz. 2020) (citation omitted). See also Manion v.
17 Ameri-Can Freight Sys. Inc., 2019 WL 3718951, *4 (D. Ariz. 2019) (“The point of the 18 motion in limine process is to simplify matters for trial, not create needless complication.”).
19 Additionally, “[a] motion in limine is not the proper vehicle for seeking a dispositive ruling
20 on a claim, particularly after the deadline for filing such motions has passed.” Hana Fin.,
21 Inc. v. Hana Bank, 735 F.3d 1158, 1162 n.4 (9th Cir. 2013).

22 For these reasons, the Court’s experience is that trial memoranda often serve as a
23 better vehicle than motions in limine for parties to address anticipated evidentiary issues.
24 Because trial memoranda are not subject to the page limits applicable to motions in limine, 25 the parties are free to use them to brief, in advance of trial, their position as to the 26 admissibility of particular pieces of evidence (or categories of evidence). Additionally,
27 trial memoranda may be used to brief other types of issues that are anticipated to arise at 28 trial, such as claims related to the sufficiency of the evidence. The Court thus encourages

1 the parties to give careful thought to whether issues that might be raised in a motion in 2 limine would be better raised in a trial memorandum.

3 6. Other Case-Related Documents. The parties must—by the deadline for filing
4 the Proposed Final Pretrial Order—file the following documents (and submit copies of 5 these documents in Word format to the chambers email address):

6 a. A stipulated joint statement of the case, which will be read to the jury.

7 b. A proposed set of voir dire questions. To the extent possible, the 8 parties should stipulate to the proposed questions. If the parties have 9 any disagreement about a particular question, they must state the 10 reason for their objection below the question.

11 c. A joint master list of the names of every witness who may be called 12 at trial, to be used during voir dire.

13 d. Proposed forms of verdict, including any proposed special verdict
14 forms or juror interrogatories.

15 e. A joint list of proposed jury instructions. The joint list must contain 16 the following four sections:

17 (1) A list of all applicable Ninth Circuit Model Civil Jury
18 Instructions, which are available at 19 <http://www3.ce9.uscourts.gov/jury-instructions/model-civil>.

20 If a model instruction is requested by both parties, the 21 instruction shall be preceded by “ST” (stipulated-to). If the 22 instruction is requested by only one party, the instruction shall 23 be preceded by either “PL” (Plaintiff) or “DF” (Defendant).

24 (2) Any non-model instructions to which the parties have 25 stipulated, with only one instruction per page.

26 (3) Any non-model instructions requested by Plaintiff (numbered 27 consecutively), with only one instruction per page. Plaintiff
28 shall include citation to authority to support the requested

1 instruction. Defendant shall state all objections to such
2 instruction immediately following the instruction and
3 Plaintiff's authority. Defendant shall support any objection
4 with citation to authority. If Defendant offers an alternative
5 instruction, such alternative instruction shall immediately
6 follow Defendant's objection.

7 (4) Any non-model instructions requested by Defendant
8 (numbered consecutively), with only one instruction per page.
9 Defendant shall include citation to authority to support the 10 requested instruction. Plaintiff shall state all objections to such 11 instruction immediately following the instruction and
12 Defendant's authority. Plaintiff shall support any objection
13 with citation to authority. If Plaintiff offers an alternative
14 instruction, such alternative instruction shall immediately
15 follow Plaintiff's objection.

16 7. Settlement Discussions: The parties must be prepared to advise the Court at 17 the Final Pretrial Conference of the status of settlement discussions. Should settlement be 18 reached at any time, the parties must promptly file a Notice of Settlement with the Clerk
19 of the Court.

20 8. Information for Court Reporter. To facilitate the creation of an accurate
21 record, please prepare a "Notice to Court Reporter" one week before the Final Pretrial
22 Conference containing the following information:

- 23 a. Proper names, including those of witnesses.
- 24 b. Acronyms.
- 25 c. Geographic locations.
- 26 d. Technical (including medical) terms, names, or jargon.
- 27 e. Case names and citations.
- 28 f. Pronunciation of unusual or difficult words or names.

1 This notice need not be filed but must be provided via e-mail to Candy Potter at 2 candy_potter@azd.uscourts.gov. Her contact number is 602-322-7246. Counsel also must
3 advise the court reporter as soon as possible if they would like to receive a real-time feed
4 or daily turnaround transcript of the proceedings.

5 9. Compliance Required. The Court wishes to emphasize to the parties that it
6 views compliance with the provisions of this Order as critical to its case management
7 responsibilities and to the responsibilities of the parties under Rule 1 of the Federal Rules
8 of Civil Procedure. Thus, full and complete compliance with this Order is required.
